Aragón is ancient kingdom, its countryside littered with the ruins of imposing fortresses and medieval castles, but there's nothing ancient or imposing about this delightfully tangy rosé made from the region's native Garnacha grape. Its striking color offers a clue to the flavors we encounter – lip-smacking strawberry and red raspberry fruit spiked with vibrant, citrusy undertones of bold blood orange and delicate lemon. Aww yeah, get your Aragón on!

According to Bodegas Tempore "our wines represent our land, warm and persistent," and boy does this one ever! This Garnacha is bursting with aromas of berries and sweet spices and flavors of stewed plums, juicy red berries, all backed up by firm tannins. This wine is as food-friendly as it gets, but fantastic on its own. Let each sip transport you to the Aragonese countryside.

Serving Suggestions: Slow-cooked lamb, BBQ pork or chicken. Catalan veal stew w/ prunes & potatoes.

Tempore crafts marvelous values that radiate the signature ripeness born of the rugged Aragonese landscape, using the sun-soaked arid environment to their advantage. Stemming from the same focus on fastidious, organic viticulture as their bottled cuvées, this Tempranillo features six months of oak aging, yielding a familiarly creamy note that wouldn't be out of place in classic Rioja.

Serving Suggestions: Pastured pork carnitas w/ sour cream, cilantro, & avocado. Grilled kabobs w/ bell peppers, tomatoes, zucchini, & mushrooms.

Currently in its fourth generation of winegrowers, the Yago Aznar family manages Tempore with a passion for organic, responsible viticulture and a love of nature.

The southern reaches of Spain's arid Aragón are the very birthplace of the powerful Garnacha (Grenache) grape, and Tempore's work always manages to showcase the variety's intensity with a purity and a power that remain balanced by freshness and structure – not an easy feat in the region's hot, dry conditions. The results are delicious.
